

Unidas Young Leaders Program

What is Unidas?

Unidas is a semester-long after-school program for young women and gender-expansive individuals from all over Arizona.

What Does Unidas Do?

Unidas is a peer-lead program that gives participants the opportunity to work together to engage in social justice.

Our Unidas cohorts meet once a week for 12 weeks. Over the course of each session, participants get to create a grant with a specific social justice topic for nonprofits in our state.

Who Can Participate?

- Young adults 14 to 22 years of age
- Gender-expansive people
- Advocates interested in leadership & social justice

Join Now!

For more information about the award winning Unidas program, contact:

unidas@womengiving.org

WFSA is committed to achieving social, political & economic change that empowers women and girls of all identities.